

Medical

Medical Malpractice is defined as negligence committed by a professional health care provider resulting in harm to a patient or patients. This arises when the doctor, nurse, dentist, technician, hospital or hospital workers performance of duties departs from what is considered standard for those with similar training and experience.

Medical Malpractice insurance is insurance that covers healthcare professionals for such things as court costs, settlements and damages associated with malpractice lawsuits.

Our customers include public and private hospitals, clinical research units, industrial and occupational health clinics, technicians, complimentary medical practitioners, beauticians and nursing homes.

Policy coverage can include:

- Public liability
- Dishonesty of employees
- Professional negligence
- Defamation
- Clinical trials
- Breach of confidentiality
- Loss of documents
